
The Planets in Astrology – Saturn#

- “The earth provides enough to satisfy every man's needs, but not every man's greed”
 - Mohandas K. Gandhi (1869-1948)
 - ♄ Saturn
 - Saturn, the sixth planet from the Sun is the second largest of the classical planets that can be seen with the naked eye. His brightness is slightly less than Jupiter
 - He is perhaps the most visibly remarkable object in our solar system due to his prominent system of rings, composed primarily of dust and ice
 - Within these rings orbit Saturn's 60 moons the largest of these, Titan is bigger than Mercury and the second largest moon in our solar system after Jupiter's Ganymede
 - It takes Saturn approximately 29 1/2 years to move through the entire zodiac
 - Saturn spends about 2 ½ years in each sign
 - Saturn attracts responsibilities, burdens and restrictions
 - ♄ Saturn Mythology
 - The youngest of the Titans, Kronos was a harvest deity, and frequently pictured holding a sickle
 - At the urgings of his mother Gaia (Earth), he used his sickle to castrate and depose his father Uranus (Sky)
 - Kronos then took his sister Rhea as his wife and they jointly ruled the throne of the world. Their period of rule was known as the Golden Age
 - Saturnalia, the most popular of Roman festivals, took place the week of the winter solstice, and commemorated this Golden Age of Kronos and Rhea
 - Kronos, symbol for both time and old age is known for having devoured his children
 - “Father Time” evolved from the Greek Kronos
 - To the Sumerians Saturn was known as Ninurta, the farmer-god, lord of the earth and the plough
 - Saturday or Saturn's day is the only day of the week in English which is ruled by a Roman deity
 - In other languages it is known as the Sabbath in Spanish and Portuguese it is sábado, in Italian as sabato, and in French as Samedi
- Since the Vikings traditionally bathed on Saturday, it is called Lördag or Löverda, and Laugardagur in Icelandic all meaning “bath-day”
- In Hindu astrology Saturn is known as Shani, the great teacher who brings things through difficulty and perseverance
 - ♄ Saturn
- “Saturn is symbolized by the crescent of the soul surmounted by the cross of matter. This signifies that the emotions, aspirations, and ideals, are made subservient to material and self centered ambitions. Temporal power is the motive, and all the feelings are repressed that action may result solely from deliberate consideration after due time for meditation. In natal astrology we find that individuals dominated by Saturn are careful, deliberate, subtle, cautious, prudent, and practical. Their chief characteristic is the persistence with which they labor for their own selfish interests. The cross above, typifying forces in antagonism, expresses the thought that all things are subject to change, that all terrestrial life ends in death, and that the tomb is the leveler of all earthly rank and distinction. Thus the cross above the crescent became the scythe held in the hands of Old Father Time. This is but one of the ancient conceptions relating to the planet Saturn as the orb of old age and dissolution.”

- Some people save for “a rainy day”
- Compulsive hoarding becomes a mental illness
- “Thinking about fear, caution, acquisition, greed, system, and selfish wants brings into the life all those conditions which come through lack and poverty or through systematic and careful planning and forethought. Discordant thoughts of this type, especially fear, greed, envy, and self-centeredness, are responsible for much loss and hardship, for privation and the necessity of working diligently for every advantage, for restrictions of various kinds and heavy burdens. Such discordant thinking always afflicts through deficiency, and is responsible for cancer, fibrous tumor, pellagra, atrophy, and constipation, and is chiefly responsible for tuberculosis.
- Fear and selfishness are the most unprofitable things in the world; for the thought-cells so formed attract losses into the life and develop chronic diseases in the body.”

- “The Saturn person loves efficiency, economy and organization. His best field is that of business man. He is shrewd and can buy to advantage, but in selling does better to employ another. His best quality is SYSTEM. His worst quality is SELFISHNESS. He will abandon trickery when he realizes that honesty is the best policy. He has a horror of waste, and can wait patiently for his plans to mature. The thoughts ruled by this planet are called the SAFETY thoughts.”
 - Delineating the Horoscope – C. C. Zain
- SATURN: The bony structure of the body, traits which stabilize the character, and ability to conserve or hoard material possessions, are expressions of the thought-cells ruled by Saturn.
- These thought-cells which so powerfully influence acquisition, fear, persistence and selfishness have been organized in lower forms of life through experiences in seeking security, such as in fleeing from enemies and hoarding food. Because their chief expression relates to obtaining safety they are called SAFETY thought-cells. Aspects to Saturn affect the life through work, responsibility, or economy or loss. To the extent the thought-cells mapped by Saturn are active is the life influenced by thoughts of safety, secrecy, acquisitiveness, covetousness, buying, trading, casualty, comparison, worry, fear, greed, selfishness, system, order or persistence.

- When Saturn is prominent in the birth chart it denotes one who works hard, is shrewd and can buy to advantage, but in selling does better to employ another. He has a leaning toward business, is a lover of efficiency, economy and organization, and has the patience to wait for plans to mature. When prominent and afflicted, he tends to become self centered and unscrupulous in taking advantage of others. The earlier he realizes that SELFISHNESS does not pay, that honesty is the most profitable policy, and devotes his energy to developing SYSTEM to eliminate waste and inefficiency, the quicker will he gain the success he desires.

- The Opposition ♆ Aspect

- The Opposition is a SEPARATION Compound
- The Opposition is formed when two planets are 180 degrees or six signs apart
- This is usually considered the most discordant aspect - though acting in a less cataclysmic manner than the square. The energies of the two planets in opposition meet each other head-on, much like a "tug-of-war. The result is a constant antagonism between the activities ruled by the two planets. This constant struggle for supremacy between the two planets does not act abruptly, nor in acute crises like the square aspect, but develops slowly and unrelentingly

- Choice must be made between one of the two opposing factors, and this choice often involves the necessity of losing one of them

- ♄ Saturn in the Houses

- “Whatever house is occupied by Saturn indicates a section of the life in which there is dearth and laborious effort. The advantages that Saturn brings, even when he is well aspected, are well earned. Saturn withholds the things signified by the house he is in or makes them difficult to obtain. They are obtained at a sacrifice of something else worth while. Thus in the chart on the frontispiece Saturn in the 7th indicates dearth where partners are concerned. This means that whatever advantages are gained from partners are more than paid for in added work and responsibility. The department of life ruled by the house occupied by Saturn is subject to Poverty.”
