- "Uranus is symbolized by two crescents joined by the cross of matter surmounting the circle of spirit. This indicates two souls in union dominating the sensations of the flesh. Spirit is beneath, however, showing that the union is of body and mind, and not of spirit. The union is not that of soul mates, therefore they are not able to reach the highest spiritual states. Nevertheless, there is penetration, intuition, and occult insight. Those dominated by Uranus are independent, inventive, and lovers of occult science. The form of the symbol conveys the idea of a union not made in heaven, and
- Uranus in his influence over life is notorious for estrangement. Uranian people seek the true counterpart, yet when their keen intuitions impress them of a mistaken choice, they break the bond asunder. Uranus rules the etheric body of man."

- Discordant thinking about such matters is responsible for some accidents, and for much of the sudden separations, and unforeseen sudden changes of fortune. It is responsible for appendicitis and paralysis, and is an important contributing factor to arthritis, infantile paralysis and nervous complaints.”
  - Mental Alchemy C. C. Zain
- “The Uranus person is at his best when swaying the multitude with his magnetic oratory, or when engaged in some unusual pursuit. He is unconventional, abrupt, and tends to take extreme views. His best quality is ORIGINALITY.
- His worst quality is ECCENTRICITY. He is always enthusiastic about reformation of some kind. And he early should learn that conventional action and moderate views in most things will enable him the better to impress others with the sanity of the essential reform. One step at a time should be his motto. The thoughts ruled by this planet are called the INDIVIDUALISTIC thoughts.”

- These thought-cells which so powerfully influence originality of thought, and the ability to make marked departures from precedence and custom, have been organized in lower forms of life through experiences in departing, under stress of emergency, from food or other habits. Because their chief expression relates to originality they are called the INDIVIDUALISTIC thought-cells. Aspects to Uranus affect the life through sudden events, through the influence of people, and through radical changes. To the extent the thought-cells mapped by Uranus are active is the life influenced by thoughts of independence, originality, inventions, the unconventional, methods unusual, or methods quite new.
- When Uranus is prominent in the birth chart it denotes one who is interested in things exceptionally old or exceptionally new. He is apt to be unconventional, is abrupt, and takes extreme views. He has the power to mold the opinions of others through conversation or oratory, and is always enthusiastic about reformation of some kind. When prominent and afflicted, he tends to go to unreasonable extremes. The earlier he learns that moderate views in most things, and the avoidance of ECCENTRICITY, will enable him to get his ORIGINALITY more readily accepted where essential matters are concerned, the sooner he will be able to bring about the reforms he seeks.
