

PERSONAL CODE OF ETHICS FOR READING TAROT

I believe the Tarot is a powerful link to the subconscious mind and the spiritual plane from where it is possible to attain universal wisdom and knowledge. I believe the interpretation of Tarot can provide insights into questions, problems or situations as well as future outcomes as may be altered by the querent's personal choices and other variables.

My personal Code of Ethics with respect to the use of Tarot is as follows:

I will read the cards without regard to my personal view or judgment in order to shed light upon the querent's concern.

I will honor the messages of Tarot, listen attentively, and respond respectfully and compassionately to the questions and comments offered by the querent during a reading.

I will emphasize the positive aspects of a reading without compromising honesty.

I will discern whether questions pertain to financial, legal, or medical matters that are best left to the professionals in those fields of specialized training and certification.

I will ascertain whether the questions pertain to a third party, past life or after life experience as those questions are best left un-addressed.

I will only do readings for clients in private and all readings will remain strictly confidential.

Finally, I will do my best to provide the querent with thoughtful insights and optimism in order that positive steps may be taken toward a resolution.
